Audience/Open Forum/Correspondence

Present at the meeting: Amy Brekel and Rylie Salyards, and Sam Wolever Jr..

Rylie Salyards- Mr. Salyards is having an amazing year in the Business Education Program. Her students have been busy with the Cat Chat publication, class pictures, and writing articles for the Fleming Focus. She also announced to the board that 33 students have qualified for the State FBLA contests which will be held at the Gaylord Resort from April 18-20th. 15 teams who participated in the district contests placed first.

Amy Brekel- Mrs. Brekel has 13 students in her third grade class this year. She explained what the students were learning in each of the academic subjects. Mrs. Brekel informed the board about “2sday”. It will be held on 2/22/22. The school has many activities planned with the number 2. She also thanked the board for allowing the elementary teachers to attend the CCIRA conference in Denver last week.

Kortney Firme- Principal- The Reading and Writing curriculum materials have been delivered. Mrs. Firme has completed the first student information upload to our new student program (ALMA). She will continue to upload information and transfer data from our current system. 13 of 20 teacher evaluations have been completed. The information that comprise the student handbook for next year will be reviewed at the Board work session in March.

Steve McCracken- Superintendent- Mr. McCracken informed the Board that the school received an Early Childhood grant for the Pre-K Program. We also received additional funding from the Supply Chain Assistance Fund. The 4-day/week application has been submitted to CDE. Discussion was held about what the next steps are in regards to the HVAC system. Ms. May would like to take the JH/SR high band to St. Louis next school year to participate in a competition.
