Also present were; Kortney Firme-Principal, Amber Schliesser, and Steve McCracken-Superintendent

Audience/Open Forum/Correspondence

Correspondence received from Levi & Karin Williamson and Randy Kirkwood.

Present at the meeting: Lynette Harms, Megan Chintala, & Jessica Japp

Lynette Harms- Mrs. Harms is the 7th-12th Special Education Teacher. She has 15 students in her program. Her students are working on math skills, language arts and other areas that will help them become successful in school. Mrs. Harms also complemented her staff for doing an awesome job with our students.

Megan Chintala- Ms. Chintala is the Elementary Academic Interventionist. In her program, she is working with students to help them succeed in school. She is using Aims Web to help her monitor the progress of our students. Ms. Chintala also serves on our RTI team.

Kortney Firme- Principal- Mrs. Firme informed the board that we had excellent attendance at the spring parent-teacher conferences. She shared the results from the Graduate Profile survey she sent out. Other items that she continues to work on include a cell phone policy, technology fees, and purchasing a new math curriculum for our K-5 students.

Steve McCracken- Superintendent- Mr. McCracken updated the board on a number of items during his report including, testing the school's water for lead, Dr. Seuss night in the library, and repairs in the 1st grade classroom. He thanked the Kirkwood and Lousberg families for their donation to the girls' basketball team while at state basketball.
